

DIARY NOTES

Executive Director-Comptroller

11 October 1965

1. I explained to Dick Helms the system by which his office is notified of Ambassadors who are visiting or about to visit Washington. He wants an extra copy of this list for his personal use, and [] [] has agreed to get this without disrupting the present system.

2. [] requested that I meet with General Maxwell Taylor's Training Committee which is taking a new look at our counter-insurgency program. I agreed to do this on Wednesday, 13 October, at 1400 hours.

3. Jack Earman, Hank Knoche, and I had another session with Sherman Kent about organizational problems. It seems clearer all the time that there is just no way to subordinate ONE to DD/I and expect the personalities involved at this time to work together harmoniously. There is also no question about Sherm's feeling that he should be placed organizationally outside the DD/I.

4. I talked to Tom Karamessines about [] and he assured me that they wanted [] very much. He is to go to the WH Division as [] Tom also assured me that they were already taking care of his day-to-day assignments.
